

Are you a man buying sex from other men in Vancouver? CHAPS wants to hear from you!

The CHAPS (Community Health Assessment of Men who Purchase and Sell Sex) Project is a study of the health, safety, working and purchasing conditions for men involved in the sex industry Metro Vancouver wide. We are currently looking for self-identified men who have experiences purchasing sexual services from other men in Vancouver and who would be interested in participating in this study.

Participants will receive an honorarium for their time.

If you're interested in participating and would like more information about the CHAPS Project, find out if you're eligible by calling 604.240.8201, or emailing chaps@cfenet.ubc.ca.
